

April 5, 2004

Press release

Vivendi Universal has filed a claim with the senior judge of the Paris county court against Mr. Karel Canoy, the attorney representing individual shareholders' association APPAC, following the offensive and libelous statements published in the Aujourd'hui/Le Parisien newspaper on April 5, 2004. The accusations made are entirely unfounded and highly damaging to the company's integrity.