CANAL + GROUP FURTHER EXPANDS ITS INTERNATIONAL FOOTPRINT WITH A NEW OFFER IN MYANMAR

Paris, February 19, 2018 - CANAL + Group announces the launch of its offer in Myanmar, in partnership with Forever Group.

The two companies are bringing together their know-how to create an offer with a wide choice of thematic channels, some of which produced specifically for the Myanmar market.

Founded in 1996, Forever Group is a major television player in Myanmar with recognized expertise in producing successful local programs, particularly films, series and music videos. Forever Group is also a leader in free TV and a precursor in pay TV with the launch in 2006 of the first pay offer in Myanmar.

CANAL + Myanmar will offer nearly 80 channels covering all themes, including 8 CANAL+ channels produced specifically in Burmese language and showcasing local content.

This offer, which places a strong emphasis on original and innovative content, takes the form of two packages at very attractive rates.

CANAL + Group will open its own CANAL + Stores and will also rely on a large network of local distributors. Specific mobile payment solutions are developed to facilitate subscription by adapting to the country's uses.

Myanmar is a fast-growing market with annual growth above 7% and a large middle class with a total population of nearly 55 million.

The expansion of CANAL + Group into Myanmar is part of the Group's development strategy in territories with high growth potential. It is the second market in Asian where CANAL+ Group is setting foot, after Vietnam.

The CANAL + Group is also present in Africa where it has 3.5 million subscribers and strong annual growth.

About CANAL+ Group
