Paris, May 29, 2018

PRESS RELEASE

CANAL+ Group would like to recall that it is the broadcaster of all of the French Ligue 1 football matches until June 2020, airing the three top games of each championship day on the CANAL+ channels and all the games on BeIn Sports, of which the Group is the number one distributor.

CANAL+ is the only premium, general-interest channel with a unique sports offering (Ligue 1, Top 14, F1, Ryder Cup, Rolex Paris Masters, boxing, etc.), the best of cinema with 400 recent films each year, exclusive Les Créations Originales TV series and the best international series (Showtime, Fx, AMC, etc.). All of these premium programs are available live or on-demand through myCanal, the leading media App in France.

With regard to the period following summer 2020, the Group will:

- study sub-licensing opportunities, which are provided for and authorized by the tender rules; and*
- explore potential partnerships with holders of premium sports rights, similar to the distribution agreements already in place with BeIn Sports and Eurosport.*
