

PRODUCTION

YOUR PASSION

Helping to produce records in coordination with songwriters, composers and singers.

YOUR SATISFACTION

Finding and producing talents you believe in. Combining magic and music, words and sound, and sharing the emotion with the audience.

OTHERS FUNCTIONS

Executive producer
Artistic director

YOUR MOTIVATION

You play a role in the design, production and technical aspects of each musical project.

You provide technical management for music production: You are responsible for recording, producing and mixing the various music formats. Thanks to your good relationship with musicians, you are able to get the best from them. You help develop the record-release plan under the supervision of the marketing project manager.

YOUR ASSETS

Your extensive knowledge of music and your openness to exciting new ideas each time you meet someone new. You have contact with a large number of players in the record business, including singers, musicians, songwriters, technicians and venue managers. You are knowledgeable about the music production chain, production tools and techniques, and the music industry as a whole.
