Vivendi settles dispute with State of Argentina

Vivendi announced today that it has settled a dispute with the State of Argentina resulting from the termination of a water contract in Tucuman province in August 1997.

As a result of an international arbitration, Vivendi was awarded a debt in favor of Vivendi against the State of Argentina in August 2007.

Under a partnership agreement with an American fund, Vivendi negotiated to swap its debt with Argentinean bonds exchangeable on the secondary market.

After the sale of these bonds, Vivendi will receive a net amount of about US$64 million.
