

PRESS RELEASE
Paris, March 23, 2020

DISNEY+ JOINS CANAL+ OFFERS

At the request of the French government given the current risk of broadband networks congestion caused by the health crisis, Disney has agreed to postpone the launch of its all-new Disney+ streaming service in France initially scheduled for March 24 until April 7.

Disney+ will be available from its launch, from April 7, in CANAL+ offers. CANAL+ will offer this new streaming service to its subscribers and will further extend the reach of Disney+ through third party distribution partners such as ISPs.

Moreover, CANAL+ will include Disney+ in a wide range of offers for its new subscribers.

- To accompany the addition of Disney+ to its offers, CANAL+ will launch a CANAL+ & Disney+ limited edition two-year subscription for just €19.90/month, until June 3, 2020;
- The pack FAMILLE+ will include all Disney's content, with Disney+ as well as exclusive access to Disney Junior and Disney Channel. In this way, CANAL+ reinforces its promise of unique family time with over 60 cinema, series, youth and documentary channels (launch price of €10/month, instead of €15/month);
- The pack CINE SERIES+, which added Netflix in October 2019 to OCS, CINE+ and other movie and series channels, will also include Disney+, creating the ultimate offer for cinema and series fans (launch price of €15/month, instead of €30/month);
- Disney+ will also be bundled with the pack +DE CANAL+ (launch price of €5/month, instead of €15/month) and the Intégrale+ package which includes all CANAL+ content and services (€89.90/month for 2 years, instead of €99.90/month)
- Finally, as announced a few weeks ago, Disney+ will be offered at no extra cost to CANAL+ subscribers with commitment to the Intégrale, Intégrale+ offers and pack Ciné Séries. The service will also be included for the first year in two other packages with commitment, pack Famille and pack Canal+.

The agreement with Disney France fits with CANAL+ Group's ambition to create a gateway to the world's top apps and channels, from a base comprising the best cinema, sport and series content.
